

LEARN THE SECRETS TO ACHIEVING YOUR CYCLING GOALS!

Join the American Transplant Foundation at the new Pizza Republica in the Denver Tech Center for a special cycling seminar featuring elite cycling coach and former pro mountain bike and road racer, Michelle Grainger.

Michelle will reveal how to draw on motivation and sports science to achieve your personal cycling goals, and fit analyst Jerry Furman of Bicycle Village will demonstrate a proper bike fit to accommodate body dimensions and riding style. This seminar will help all athletes get their season started off right and will introduce Team Transplant, the American Transplant Foundation's charity cycling team at the 2009 Elephant Rock Ride. This special event is free to the public!

Wednesday, May 6th

6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Pizza Republica

5370 Greenwood Plaza Blvd. · Englewood, CO 80111

Hors d'Oeuvres & Cash Bar

Featuring: Elite Cycling Coach Michelle Grainger and Bicycle Fit Analyst Jerry Furman

Team Transplant will ride at the 2009 Elephant Rock Ride in Castle Rock, Colorado to help save the lives of the more than 100,000 people in the United States who are waiting for a lifesaving transplant.

Join us Wednesday, May 6th to learn more about joining Team Transplant and how you can earn a free team jersey, a training ride with a cycling coach, training programs, and more!

For more information, visit www.AmericanTransplantFoundation.org

Please R.S.V.P. by contacting the American Transplant Foundation at 303-757-0959.